Generalized Linear Model (GLM) - Poisson Distribution (p. 4)

1. Introduction

The Poisson distribution is a discrete probability distribution that models the number of events occurring in a fixed interval of time or space. It is often used to model count data, such as the number of calls received by a call center or the number of defects in a batch of products. The Poisson distribution is characterized by its mean and variance, which are both equal to the parameter λ .

2. The Poisson Distribution

The probability mass function (PMF) of the Poisson distribution is given by the following formula:

$$P(X = k) = \frac{e^{-\lambda} \lambda^k}{k!}$$

where X is the random variable representing the number of events, k is the number of events, and λ is the mean and variance of the distribution.
